ANALYSIS & FINDINGS

This object is an Iznik polychrome pottery dish from the 16th century, originating from Ottoman Turkey. It has a quartz fritware body with underglaze decoration, characteristic of Iznik ware. The colours are typical for this style, with cobalt blue, turquoise and tomato red. Condition is fair, with some wear and no visible marks. Comparable pieces are held in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, which confirms the dating and origin of this object. Despite the lack of marks, the style and technique point to authenticity.
